

Honeymoons

Costa Rica is the ideal destination for a honeymoon and here at Fleewinter we specialise in creating a unique and personal trip of a lifetime for you!

We can discuss exactly what you are looking for and include a choice of activities and hotels to suit everyone, whether you want to stay in rustic cabins great for wildlife watching, or adult only luxury beach side properties we can ensure that it is perfect for the both of you. Additionally, after all that wedding planning we can take away all the stress of the honeymoon with assistance from the first call to heading home relaxed and rested!

If you would like to have contributions made towards your honeymoon we can discuss the best way to break these out for you.

Have a look at some of our suggested accommodation and itineraries to get started and then send an email or better still call through (020 7112 009) and we can begin planning!
