

Osaka

Osaka is the historical commercial capital of Japan and Japan's second largest metropolis which has been the economic powerhouse of the Kansai region for centuries.

Nowadays, Osaka is one of Japan's most vibrant cities, known for its lively people, large aquarium, underground shopping arcade, Universal Studios amusement park... and specially famous for its local delicious cuisine. Its nickname "Tenka no Daidokoro" (the nation's kitchen) inspired us to create some foodie tours for you to experience the real taste of Osaka.
