

The Chef's Tour

Everybody, whether child or adult, falls in love with Jordanian cuisine from the very first bite. Choose our Jordan Chef's Tour, and you'll be privy to the most closely-guarded secrets of the locals themselves, allowing you to bring all of the mouth-watering tastes of the country back to your kitchen at home. You'll wander the markets of Amman and shop for ingredients with experienced chefs, harvest fruits and herbs with local Jordanians, and sit around campfires cooking up delicious meats and breads with Bedouin families as you swap recipes and stories under a perfect starry sky.

Enjoy an experience that will last a lifetime, and wow your guests with your new skills at your next dinner party back home.
