

SHORT BREAK IN FEZ

Fes (or Fez), after Casablanca and Rabat, is the third largest city in Morocco. In the course of the last 500 years it has taken on the role of a leading cultural and intellectual centre. It remains a unique place in the whole of the Arab world, boasting more sites and historical attractions than all the other cities of Morocco put together.