

Philippines Holidays

The Philippines is home to a staggering array of beaches and so much more. Whether you're seeking an island getaway, traditional culture and heritage, off the beaten track adventure, great diving, or the chance to disconnect from it all, we can plan a trip for you. Scroll down for a few Philippines itinerary ideas with sample prices.

Every trip we plan is tailor made so that you get the perfect Philippines holiday. The tours and routes below are here to inspire you and serve as a starting point for holiday planning. There's far more to do and many other ways to experience this incredible archipelago.

Send us an email or give us a ring at (UK) 0207 112 0019 and let us know what you're interested in. Our Philippines expert would love to help plan your trip!

And if diving is your primary draw, please have a look here for an overview of where the good spots are.