

Secluded Islands

Escape to luxurious privacy in two secluded parts of Palawan. After a night in Manila connecting from your international flight, head to D'Pearl Bay on the island of Busuanga. This calm bay is idyllic with sailboats bobbing in the water and very few properties in the area. You'll have access to a private island beach, a relaxing spa, a long list of water sports, and views from your verandah out over the water. Round out your holiday on Pangulasian Island near El Nido. This exclusive island is home to one of the most luxurious resorts in the Philippines. You'll be spoilt for beach choices and can pick a different spot to watch the sun set each day.

Please bear in mind that this itinerary is here as inspiration and can be changed in any number of ways. Every trip we sell is tailor made to suit you so that you'll get the honeymoon you're seeking. Please email or call (UK) 020 7112 0019 to discuss your ideal holiday in the Philippines.
